

Sixth Grade Reading Class

This class is highly individualized based upon the needs of each student. We focus strongly on reading, writing and spelling each day. We explore a variety of strategies to improve student reading including the following:

- Evidence Based Learning Instruction (EBLI)
- Read Naturally Fluency reading
- Paired Reading
- Choral Reading
- Questioning techniques

In the area of writing, we begin with complete sentence writing and learning to combine sentences. We then focus of organizing thoughts to form paragraphs which include topic sentences, details and conclusion sentences. There is a strong focus on spelling throughout student writing. Students are taught and encouraged to use a variety of resources to edit and polish their finished writing.

Class rules and expectations:

1. Be respectful of others
2. Be responsible for yourself
3. Be nice to each other
